In this comprehensive guide, I will share my favorite places in Zambia and Zimbabwe, from the iconic Victoria Falls to the hidden gems that few tourists know about. Whether you're a seasoned traveler or a first-time visitor, this guide will help you plan the perfect trip.

Zambia

Zambia is a land of stunning natural beauty, with vast national parks, pristine lakes, and the mighty Zambezi River. Here are some of my favorite places to visit in Zambia:

Victoria Falls

Victoria Falls is one of the most iconic natural wonders in the world. This massive waterfall is more than a mile wide and drops over 350 feet into the Zambezi River. The spray from the falls creates a constant rainbow, and the thunderous roar can be heard for miles around.

There are many ways to experience Victoria Falls, from taking a boat ride to the base of the falls to hiking along the rim. You can also visit the nearby town of Livingstone, which offers a variety of restaurants, shops, and hotels.

Zambezi River

The Zambezi River, one of the longest rivers in Africa

The Zambezi River is the fourth longest river in Africa, and it flows through Zambia, Angola, Namibia, Botswana, and Zimbabwe. The river is home to a variety of wildlife, including hippos, crocodiles, elephants, and lions. You can take a boat ride down the river, go fishing, or relax on the banks and enjoy the scenery.

Lake Kariba

Lake Kariba is the largest man-made lake in the world. It was created in 1959 when the Kariba Dam was built across the Zambezi River. The lake is home to a variety of fish, including tigerfish, bream, and catfish. You can go fishing, boating, or swimming in the lake. You can also visit the nearby towns of Kariba and Siavonga, which offer a variety of restaurants, shops, and hotels.

South Luangwa National Park

South Luangwa National Park, one of the best places in Africa to see leopards

South Luangwa National Park is one of the best places in Africa to see leopards. The park is also home to a variety of other wildlife, including elephants, lions, buffaloes, and zebras. You can go on a game drive, take a walking safari, or go canoeing down the Luangwa River.

Lower Zambezi National Park

Lower Zambezi National Park is known for its canoeing and fishing. The park is home to a variety of wildlife, including elephants, hippos, crocodiles, and lions. You can go on a game drive, take a walking safari, or go canoeing down the Zambezi River.

Zimbabwe

Zimbabwe is a land of ancient ruins, rolling hills, and diverse wildlife. Here are some of my favorite places to visit in Zimbabwe:

Great Zimbabwe

Great Zimbabwe, the ruins of an ancient city

Great Zimbabwe is the ruins of an ancient city that was built between the 11th and 15th centuries. The city was once home to over 10,000 people, and it was the center of a powerful empire.

Today, Great Zimbabwe is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You can visit the ruins and learn about the history of this ancient city.

Mana Pools National Park

Mana Pools National Park is a UNESCO World Heritage Site that is known for its pristine wilderness and abundant wildlife. The park is home to a variety of animals, including elephants, lions, leopards, and buffalos.

You can go on a game drive, take a walking safari, or go canoeing down the Zambezi River.

Hwange National Park

Hwange National Park, home to the largest population of elephants in Africa

Hwange National Park is home to the largest population of elephants in Africa. The park is also home to a variety of other wildlife, including lions, leopards, buffalos, and zebras.

You can go on a game drive, take a walking safari, or go horseback riding in the park.

Victoria Falls

Victoria Falls is one of the most iconic natural wonders in the world. This massive waterfall is more than a mile wide and drops over 350 feet into the Zambezi River. The spray from the falls creates a constant rainbow, and the thunderous roar can be heard for miles around.

There are many ways to experience Victoria Falls, from taking a boat ride to the base of the falls to hiking along the rim. You can also visit the nearby town of Victoria Falls, which offers a variety of restaurants, shops, and hotels.

Planning Your Trip

If you're planning a trip to Zambia and Zimbabwe, here are a few things to keep in mind:

- The best time to visit Zambia and Zimbabwe is during the dry season, from May to October.
- You will need a visa to enter Zambia and Zimbabwe. You can apply for a visa online or at your nearest embassy or consulate.
- The local currency in Zambia is the Zambian kwacha (ZMW). The local currency in Zimbabwe is the Zimbabwean dollar (ZWL).
- There are a variety of ways to get around Zambia and Zimbabwe, including by plane, train, bus, and car.
- There are a variety of places to stay in Zambia and Zimbabwe, including hotels, guesthouses, and campsites.
