A Panoramic View of Power and Leadership

Our journey begins in the vibrant streets of Rio de Janeiro, where Dom Pedro I, the charismatic Emperor of Brazil, led a nation to independence and modernity. We then venture to Lisbon, the heart of the Portuguese empire, to encounter the enigmatic Salazar, the authoritarian ruler who guided Portugal through decades of political and economic isolation. From the sprawling savannas of Angola to the verdant valleys of Mozambique, we uncover the stories of liberation heroes and post-independence leaders who fought for freedom and shaped the destiny of their young nations.
